

Program Code of Conduct

The Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows School District is committed to ensuring that every student learns in a safe, caring, inclusive and respectful environment. Positive learning environments are foundational to student well-being, belonging and success. Expectations for student conduct and school responses to behaviour are set out below.

Guiding Principles – All students are expected to:

- Attend school regularly, arrive to class on time and engage in learning
 - Absent unexcused for 30 or more classes (7.5 days of school) - performance contract
 - Absent unexcused for 60 or more classes (15 days of school) - final warning contract
 - Absent unexcused for 80 or more classes (20 days of school) - subject to withdrawal from the program
- Contribute to a safe and orderly environment
- Demonstrate respect for themselves, for others and for property
- Model courtesy, compassion, and care for members of the school community
- Value diversity and contribute to an inclusive culture
- Conduct themselves in ways that support the physical, social and emotional safety of others
- Practice academic honesty
- Respect homestay rules and always share location
- Strive to progress to the best of their ability and pass all classes
- Complete and hand in assignments on time

Students must refrain from behaviour that:

- Interferes with the learning or well-being of others
- Involves bullying, harassment, intimidation, retaliation, discrimination or violence
- Is unsafe, unlawful or involves the possession or use of illegal or restricted substances (including alcohol and marijuana), weapons or replicas
- Changes their permanent physical appearance (body piercings, tattoos)
- Involves travel without completing and submitting the necessary documents – must obtain official permission and be supervised by a responsible adult over the age of 25
- Involves driving or operating a motor vehicle while in the homestay program, including use of e-bikes and e-scooters is not permitted

I understand that if I do not abide by the International Education Code of Conduct, I will undergo a status review and may ultimately be withdrawn from the program (no tuition refund). I will follow the guidelines of my study permit.
